

Disclaimer:

Anudip Foundation (www.anudip.org) is a purely social not for profit enterprise, registered under section 8 of the Companies Act, 2013. Over the past 13 years, Anudip Foundation has been recognized globally for its unique technology-driven initiative to train and empower more than 100,000 underserved Indian youth and women thereby touching over 425,000 needy people from low-income family groups, tribal communities, reformed insurgents, people with disabilities, political refugees, victims of trafficking, ethnic and religious minorities who historically perform poorly in the human development index.

Refund and Cancellation Policy

Our focus is complete helping the needy and youth. Anudip Foundation receives funds in the form of donation as a purely social enterprise registered under section 8 of the Companies Act, 2013 and in this event, we are not liable to refund back the money, provided for contribution to the social welfare from any company, and individual.

In case of dissatisfaction from our services, clients have the liberty to ask or audit the reports on the financial transparency. In case of enquiries, please contact us at the Contact Us page.

As a social entity, we are not subjected to any cancellation or refund policy.

.....